FAMILY INFORMATION NEWSLETTER

February 26, 2024

OPPORTUNITIES – Centerville school is pleased to announce that Golf Pro Amy Wilson from the Goldendale Golf Club will instruct students in basic golf skills this week. The indoor golf clinic will introduce students to the world of golf world. Thank you, Pro Wilson.

FEBRUARY AWARDS ASSEMBLY – Please join us as we celebrate our February Student of the Month character trait of Friendship. Congratulations to Cora O., Jaycee B., Norah L., Lydia S., Braelynn G., Travis A., Jaedynn I., Evalyn C., and Luke B. These students are stewards of fun, sharing, politeness, respectfulness, kindness, and truth. Congratulations students!

DO YOU HAVE A HIDDEN TALENT? – Do you or someone you know have a hidden talent you would like to share with Centerville students? Martial arts? Painting? Dance? Share with Mrs. Cameron what you are hiding, and we will bring you in as a “guest” instructor. We love to introduce our students to many and unique opportunities. Show us what you’ve got!!

PARFAITS FOR PARENTS – JOIN US NEXT MONDAY MORNING AT 7:45 AM. We will be having Parfaits for Parents as we share our favorite books while having breakfast with friends and families. Join us for a free “Book Breakfast!”

SCHOLASTIC BOOK FAIR – The annual Scholastic Book Fair is coming next week as part of our March Reading Month. Mrs. Rolfe has a full slate of fun and engaging opportunities for you to support the readers of Centerville School. Look for detailed information soon.

MARCH READING MONTH – KICK-OFF FRIDAY – Dr. Seuss’ Birthday activities will be the kick-off event for our DUCK INTO A GOOD BOOK Reading Month. Students will join together for fun and engaging reading activities. We have many community partners joining us as supporters this month, including Goldendale Kiwanis, Centerville PTC, Goldendale Regional Library, McDonalds, Dairy Queen, and parent/family volunteers! Thank you all for supporting our readers!
